Born in Russia, BORIS LYSENKO studied at the Special Music School affiliated with the Leningrad State Conservatory. He graduated from the Faculty of Piano and obtained a post-graduate degree in Music from the Leningrad State Conservatory. His teacher there was the distinguished Soviet pianist and professor Natan Perelman.

Mr. Lysenko taught at the Leningrad Conservatory for 20 years, eventually becoming Professor of Piano and Chairman of the Piano Department. He enjoyed great popularity in the USSR as a piano soloist. He was also a leader in the organization of artistic and scientific activity at the Leningrad Conservatory and was its Vice-President for twelve years.

Mr. Lysenko performed extensively as soloist and made artistic tours throughout the USSR and Europe. He performed with numerous Soviet symphony orchestras and made recordings for radio and television. He came to Canada with his family in 1980 and is now a member of the teaching staff of both the Royal Conservatory of Music and the Faculty of Music.

The Faculty of Music cordially invites you to attend other events in the Edward Johnson Building. Throughout the year there are many recitals by Faculty members and students as well as orchestra, band, choral, jazz and opera performances. Information is available in the Calendar of Events, which may be picked up in the Main Lobby near the Box Office. For information telephone 978-3751.

Contributions for the scholarship or operating funds (payable to the University of Toronto and directed to the Faculty of Music) are most welcome, and are eligible for an income tax receipt. Please address donations or enquiries to Professor Carl Morey, Dean, Faculty of Music, University of Toronto, Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A1. Telephone 978-3761.
